

Key reminders

Please ensure your child brings a named water bottle to school each day.

There will be no Friday 'stay and read' sessions this half term for EYFS and KS1.

A set of spare clothes can be brought in and left on your child's peg in case of any accidents.

PE

Rose PE Day is Friday

Bluebell PE Day is Friday

Please ensure your child has the correct PE kit in school on their timetabled PE days. Their PE kit school will be taken home again at the end of the day. Children must have a full PE kit (a white t-shirt, green or black shorts and plimsolls) to ensure personal hygiene and safety.

Homework

Homework will be given out every Thursday, to be returned the following Monday. Please support your child to complete the activities set.

Children will receive two reading books, which will be changed every week. Please remember to leave a comment in the Home School Diary and make sure you read each day with your child.

Reception Autumn 1 Curriculum Newsletter

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome to the start of an exciting year at Hoxton Garden Primary School! We are excited to welcome our new families and welcome back everyone else.

Please support your children by ensuring they have their book bags daily, homework is completed on time and there are daily opportunities for reading and counting at home.

Should you have any concerns or wish to discuss your child's progress, please feel free to speak to us. We are available to talk after school on most days.

Information about what your child will learn this half term is on the inside of this booklet.

We look forward to working with you and your child.

Best wishes,

Ms Baird Ms Qawatin

Our topic this half term is 'Wonderful Me'

Communication and Language

I can use language to imagine and recreate roles and situations.
I can join in re telling and anticipate key events.
I can follow two part instructions.
I can use a range of tenses.
I can ask and answer why and how questions.
I can use talk to organise and sequence events and ideas.

Understanding the World

I can talk about why things happen and how things work.
I can talk about things that make me unique.
I can show an interest in the lives of people who are familiar to me.
I can operate simple ICT equipment.
I can talk about some of the things I have observed, say why things happen and how things work.

Literacy

I can join in with repeated refrains.
I can use some clearly identifiable letters representing them in sequence.
I can give meaning to marks I make.
I can hear and say initial sounds in words.
I can write names, labels and captions.
I know information can be retrieved from books.

Physical Development

I can use objects and tools safely and with increasing control.
I can begin to make anticlockwise movement and retrace vertical lines.
I can show increasing control over an object in pushing, patting, throwing, catching or kicking it.
I can use one handed tools and equipment.
I can hold a pencil between thumb and two fingers, no longer using a whole hand grasp.
I can travel with confidence and skill around, under, over and through balancing and climbing equipment.

Expressive Art and Design

I can construct with a purpose in mind using a variety of resources.
I can engage in imaginative role play based on my own experiences.
I can make up and follow simple rhythms.
I can describe the textures of things.
I can use a range of resources to create props to support role play.

Mathematics

I can count objects to 10.
I can find 'one more' and 'one less than'.
I can order objects by capacity.
I can find the total of items by counting two groups.
I can separate items into groups.
I can use positional language relating to myself.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

I am beginning to solve problems and negotiate without aggression.
I understand class rules and boundaries.
I understand that my actions affect others.
I can show confidence in asking adults for help.
I can adapt my behaviour to different social situations and changes to routine.