In this issue: Welcome / Art Competition / Caught Reading / Young Scientists / Holiday Homework / Coffee Mornings / Healthy Bodies / Key Dates

Dear Parents and Carers,

We hope that you enjoyed the half term break and are well rested as we start the second half of the year. Thank you to all parents and carers who supported the half term holiday homework projects, there were some fantastic examples of research presented in very creative ways and shared to our home learning email account.

Our recent 'caught reading' campaign has been a huge success with many wonderful videos and photographs sent in celebrating reading for pleasure. World Book Day will be taking place on Thursday 4th March and children, whether learning at home or attending school, are encouraged to dress up as their favourite book character. The aim of the day is to encourage children to delve into the world of fiction, explore different genres and share our passion for reading. We will be sharing resources closer to the time on the home learning pages of our website.

As a result of the continued partial closures, the high level of personal contact with individual families weekly and the challenges of accurately measuring pupil progress until all children are back in school full time, Spring Term reports and the parent consultation evening due to take place on the 25th March will not go ahead. This means that the next parents evening consultation and report date will be the 8th July. We encourage you to speak to the class teacher during the partial closure weekly calls or book an appointment time via the school office for a call back if a longer discussion is required.

As you will be aware, the government has announced that schools will reopen to all pupils on 8th March 2021. We are very much looking forward to welcoming back all pupils to face-to-face education. School attendance will be mandatory which will mean that our usual attendance systems and rules will once again apply, including parents' duty to secure their child's regular attendance at school the ability to issue sanctions, including fixed penalty notices in line with Hackney Education's codes of conduct, non-attendance without due reason will result in unauthorised absence. Any absences should to be reported by calling the school office before 8.55am. First day calling will take place to ensure the safeguarding of all pupils. Further information about re-opening will be shared at the start of next week.

CAUGHT READING!

Daily reading for children is an enjoyable activity which develops vocabulary and comprehension skills. It also aids sleep readiness and reduces stress, supporting our mental wellbeing. Some teachers have been listening to children read over the phone! Look who's been caught reading this week...

YOUNG SCIENTISTS

Thank you for all your wonderful videos. We are particularly enjoying the exciting science experiments. Take a look at our Twitter to see this one!

SLEEP PLAYS A CRUCIAL ROLE IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF YOUNG MINDS. IN ADDITION TO HAVING A DIRECT EFFECT ON HAPPINESS, RESEARCH SHOWS THAT SLEEP IMPACTS ALERTNESS, ATTENTION, LEARNING, MOOD, RESILIENCE, VOCABULARY AND MEMORY!

HOLIDAY HOMEWORK PROJECTS

Look who's been busy over the half term break! Our creative holiday homework projects were met with enthusiasm and the response has been huge. At Hoxton Garden, we believe homework is important for children from an early age, as it helps them gain knowledge and develop a sense of responsibility towards to their learning. We are extremely proud of our children's achievements and more can be seen on our social medias pages. Keep sending in your photos, ensuring your child is included in the image!

COFFEE MORNINGS

A huge thank you to everyone who has stopped by to watch our coffee morning videos on our website and for the feedback about how helpful these have been. As always, we are keen to ensure content is relevant and interesting so if there are themes that you would like to see in the summer term, please let us know by emailing the school admin account or putting a request in the parent comment box in the school office.

HEALTHY BODIES!

With lockdown and social distancing measures still in place we are all spending more time at home, which is why physical activity is more important than ever. The NHS states that to be healthy children should:

Have 60 minutes of exercise per day.

Develop strong muscles, bones and good movement skills by doing a variety of physical activity every week.

Do exercises at different intensity levels, the best is the kind that makes you breathe faster and feel warmer.

Aim to spread activity throughout the day and break up long periods of not moving with some activity. Try creating a timetable of different activities each day and adding something new each week. Have you tried: jogging, cycling, ball games in the park, a nature hunt? Send your pictures of activity to the home learning email account for a chance to be featured on our social media accounts!
