| | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Oliver Twist had scary stories and a creepy atmosphere. - We enjoyed Boy at the Back of the Class because it had a good message. | |
| Reading Diaries | We looked at the reading diary data across each class and discussed which classes needed to improve their results. Ways that classes suggested of improving diary completion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You should set an alarm or reminder at home for when to read and complete your diaries. - Only sign your diaries if you have read with an adult. - Make sure you don't lose your diary. You don't want to be the only child without signing their diary in the class. - Remember to write in your page numbers. - Make a timetable for your diary reward chart to remind you. - Write a checklist every day. | Librarians to share suggestions with their classmates who regularly forget to sign their diaries. |
| Writing Competition: A Hoxton Garden Adventure | We looked at the MANY competition entries and narrowed them down. We were looking for a story that fulfils the brief of being a Hoxton Garden Adventure and also engaged the audience. Ms Sanderson read our favourite ones and then we voted on the winners. Winner: Zaynab Runners up: Sukhmani, Jenny, Aleena | Prizes to be given out on Friday assembly- Mrs Kinder. |
| Book Fair | Ms Sanderson shared the poster for the Book Fair for librarians to share with their classes. We discussed how to encourage children to buy books. We learnt that the more books that children buy, the more free books we can purchase for our school. Ms Sanderson asked for volunteers to help with the stall. | Janiah and Zaynab to support with the Book Fair at the Christmas Fair. |
| Reading with the year 1s | The librarians are enjoying reading with the year 1 pupils at lunch. They listen really well. They always talk about the pictures in the book. Librarians would still want to go to classrooms for DSR. | Create a section in the Y1 playground to read in. Discuss librarians joining DSR once a week- Ms Sanderson to ask Mrs DeVeer Provide more stickers- Ms Sanderson |
