Wellbeing Activities	The cross-site meeting last week brought up a discussion around wellbeing activities. We want to incorporate wellbeing activities into our daily routine in class. We discussed and shared ideas. Ideas: Fun quiz Wellbeing area in the classroom Puzzles Toys Feelings talk time Quiet reading time A comfort corner We agreed that after class council meetings would be a useful time to focus on wellbeing strategies.	Introduce a 5-minute well-being activity at the end of class council meetings.

Learning more	Learning more We discussed this topic in our Class Council Meeting and shared key take-aways from our minutes.
remembering more		takeaways with SLT.
	Findings:
	 Teacher explains concepts well to help us learn the first time.
	 We talk to partners to help us remember what he have learnt already.
	- Teachers ask questions to elicit memories.
	 Teachers teach detailed lessons that draw on prior learning.
	- We recap what we've been learning.
	 Displays have facts and pictures that help us remember.
Football promotion for girls	We set this as an agenda for the year and formulated a plan.	HS to speak to Shola.
	Plan:
	- Set a specific day for girls to play.
	 We could open the pitch for girls in the morning break.
	 We could alternate Mondays for different year group girls.
	HS will speak to Ms Shola about how to make this work with playground staff.
Quiet reading space	Year 5 children suggested a quiet reading space in the playground. We agreed that children would enjoy having a "quiet zone"	HS to put together a
